EXPERIENCE

Christophe Caron has quickly made his mark on New York's real estate scene. Born in France, raised in Spain, Mr. Caron adds an international flair to Bona Tierra's diverse base of service professionals. Fluent in French, Spanish and English, Christophe caters to Bona Tierra's ever-increasing base of international clients. Further highlighting his international profile, Mr. Caron has lived in England, Germany, Greece, and Italy (to name a few), and has grown a deep knowledge and appreciation for various real estate markets. Christophe joins the agency with a Bachelors Degree in Economics from Pierre d'Aragon and Masters Degree in Economics from Universidad Nacional de Educacion a Distancia. Mr. Caron utilizes his passion for business and people to help clients navigate the New York real estate market. Christophe assists his growing base of clients in finding the perfect personal housing, corporate apartments and commercial spaces. Mr. Caron joined Bona Tierra because he loves helping people through finding that perfect space that not only meets needs, but also exceeds high expectations. He self proclaims that he'll let you know if he doesn't like the space and won't try and sell something that he is not personally proud of. It's his candid feedback and attentive nature that keep clients happy and coming back to Christophe for all real estate needs.
